That flexibility, though, can mean they bore easily, especially when they aren't challenged. When it comes to vacations, Geminis should be kept hopping whether that's from island to island or from one cultural site to another.

That's why big cities filled with new experiences or multiple destinations in one trip are perfect for the Gemini traveler.

Sagittarius

In astrology, the Sagittarius is depicted as a centaur, armed with a bow and ready for the hunt. As a traveler this means always seeking the new and the now, whether that means bunking down for weeks with a far-flung population or seeking out an under-the-radar, untouched destination.
